Toxicity and Hazards

All of our chemicals should be handled by qualified personnel only; trained in laboratory procedures, and familiar with potential hazards. Information is not available on the possible hazards of many compounds. The absence of a warning must not be interpreted as indication of safety.

Our products are not intended for human consumption, drug use or any form of human experimentation.

The ultimate responsibility for the proper handling of any and all chemical lies with the user. All goods sold by Iduron carry the condition that liability for any injury, loss or damage whatsoever to persons or real property resulting from the handling or the said good lies with the user. Acceptance of our goods binds the customer to these terms.

Storage

Our products are sold as freeze dried or crystalline solids or more rarely as frozen or liquid solutions. Most products are stable for several weeks at room temperature, provided they are not opened and the seal is not broken. We do recommend that all products are stored frozen at –15 to –20 degrees Celsius upon receipt and that they are allowed to warm to room temperature before opening. If made up into solution avoid repeated freeze-thawing. Stock solutions should be prepared in appropriate aliquots and stored frozen.

Warranties

Iduron warrants that its products shall conform to the description of such products as provided in Iduron's catalogue. This warranty is exclusive, and seller makes no other warranty, expressed or implied, including any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose.

Iduron's sole and exclusive liability and Buyer's exclusive remedy with respect to products proved to Iduron's satisfaction to be defective or nonconforming shall be the replacement of such products without charge or refund of the purchase price, at the sole discretion of Iduron, upon the return of such products in accordance with Iduron's instruction. Iduron shall not be liable for any incidental, consequential or contingent damages.

Buyer must notify Iduron within five days after the products have been received or such products shall be deemed to have been accepted.

No license or immunity under any patent is granted or is to be implied by or from the sale of any product.

Use of products

Iduron's products are intended primarily for laboratory research and unless otherwise indicated are not to be used for any other purpose. Buyer agrees to indemnify and hold Iduron harmless from and against any and all losses, damages and expenses whatsoever or howsoever caused, arising from any use of the product by Buyer, and assumes all risk and liabilities resulting from the use of the products whether used singly or in combination with other products.
